ELECTION 2012

FACT SHEET: CONNECTICUT

Entering office amid an economic crisis, President Obama has consistently fought for the middle class, protecting children, and education. Here is just some of what has been achieved in Connecticut.

Strengthening the middle class

- The current tax system is NOT fair: In 2010, Connecticut corporations paid $508 million in state income taxes and individuals paid $5.8 billion — 11 times more. (Source: U.S. Census Bureau, State Government Tax Collections Summary Report: 2010)

- The Social Security payroll tax cut instituted by President Obama is a first step to leveling the playing field — $1,000 more in take-home pay for a middle class family earning $50,000 a year. (Source: U.S. Department of the Treasury)

Making college affordable

- President Obama has preserved Pell grants for nearly 65,000 students in Connecticut. (Source: U.S. Department of Education)

- Last year alone, the American Opportunity Tax Credit introduced by President Obama helped make college tuition affordable for 106,000 families in Connecticut. (Source: U.S. Department of the Treasury, Office of Tax Analysis)

Supporting educators, modernizing schools

- As a result of President Obama’s support for the Education Jobs Fund, signed into law in August 2010, Connecticut received $110 million that helped keep teachers in the classroom, limit increases in class size, and contain layoffs of counselors, classroom aides, and other education support professionals. At its peak, the Education Jobs Fund supported nearly 600 education jobs throughout the state. (Source: U.S. Department of Education)

- The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act, signed into law by President Obama in February 2009, funded more than 4,000 education jobs in Connecticut. (Source: U.S. Department of Education)

- President Obama’s American Jobs Act, which the Republican Congress continues to block, would provide $336 million for education jobs, $185 million to modernize schools, and $38 million for community colleges in Connecticut. - The Affordable Care Act has brought peace of mind to 2.3 million people in Connecticut — they no longer have to worry about lifetime limits. (Source: U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, The Health Care Law & You, healthcare.gov)

- In 2011, more than 10,000 young adults in Connecticut could remain on their parents’ health plans until age 26 — and that number will grow in 2012. Before the Affordable Care Act, many college graduates and other young adults had no insurance. (Source: U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, The Health Care Law & You, healthcare.gov)
