ELECTION 2012

FACT SHEET: MAINE

Entering office amid an economic crisis, President Obama has consistently fought for the middle class, protecting children, and education. Here is just some of what has been achieved in Maine.

Strengthening the middle class

- The current tax system is NOT fair: In 2010, Maine corporations paid $175 million in state income taxes and individuals paid $1.3 billion — seven times more. (Source: U.S. Census Bureau, State Government Tax Collections Summary Report: 2010)

- The Social Security payroll tax cut instituted by President Obama is a first step to leveling the playing field — $1,000 more in take-home pay for a middle class family earning $50,000 a year. (Source: U.S. Department of the Treasury)

- Over the last two decades, on average the income of the richest 20% of families in Maine rose by more than $26,000 while the income of the poorest 20% of families in Maine rose by about $1,900 — 14 times more. Making college affordable

- President Obama has preserved Pell grants for nearly 30,000 students in Maine. (Source: U.S. Department of Education)

- Last year alone, the American Opportunity Tax Credit introduced by President Obama helped make college tuition affordable for 35,000 families in Maine. (Source: U.S. Department of the Treasury, Office of Tax Analysis)

February 2012
Supporting educators, modernizing schools

- As a result of President Obama’s support for the Education Jobs Fund, signed into law in August 2010, Maine received $39 million that helped keep teachers in the classroom, limit increases in class size, and contain layoffs of counselors, classroom aides, and other education support professionals. - The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act, signed into law by President Obama in February 2009, funded nearly 300 education jobs in Maine. (Source: U.S. Department of Education)

- President Obama’s American Jobs Act, which the Republican Congress continues to block, would provide $117 million for education jobs, $91 million to modernize schools, and $13 million for community colleges in Maine. (Source: A State by State Guide to the American Jobs Act, whitehouse.gov)

Improving health care

- In 2011, Maine received $1.4 million for school-based health centers that provide screenings, conduct health promotion and disease prevention activities, and enable children with acute or chronic illnesses to attend school. - The Affordable Care Act has brought peace of mind to 735,000 people in Maine — they no longer have to worry about lifetime limits. (Source: U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, The Health Care Law & You, healthcare.gov)

- In 2011, more than 3,600 young adults in Maine could remain on their parents’ health plans until age 26 — and that number will grow in 2012. Before the Affordable Care Act, many college graduates and other young adults had no insurance. (Source: U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, The Health Care Law & You, healthcare.gov)
