ELECTION 2012

FACT SHEET: PENNSYLVANIA

Entering office amid an economic crisis, President Obama has consistently fought for the middle class, protecting children, and education. Here is just some of what has been achieved in Pennsylvania.

Strengthening the middle class

- The current tax system is NOT fair: In 2010, Pennsylvania corporations paid $1.6 billion in state income taxes and individuals paid $9.4 billion — six times more. (Source: U.S. Census Bureau, State Government Tax Collections Summary Report: 2010)

- The Social Security payroll tax cut instituted by President Obama is a first step to leveling the playing field — $1,000 more in take-home pay for a middle class family earning $50,000 a year. (Source: U.S. Department of the Treasury)

- From the late 1980s to the mid-2000s, on average the income of the richest 5% of families in Pennsylvania rose by more than $80,000 while the income of the poorest 20% of families in Pennsylvania rose by about $1,400 — nearly 60 times more. Making college affordable

- President Obama has preserved Pell grants for nearly 270,000 students in Pennsylvania. (Source: U.S. Department of Education)

- Last year alone, the American Opportunity Tax Credit introduced by President Obama helped make college tuition affordable for 372,000 families in Pennsylvania. (Source: U.S. Department of the Treasury, Office of Tax Analysis)
Supporting educators, modernizing schools

- As a result of President Obama’s support for the Education Jobs Fund, signed into law in August 2010, Pennsylvania received $388 million that helped keep teachers in the classroom, limit increases in class size, and contain layoffs of counselors, classroom aides, and other education support professionals. At its peak, the Education Jobs Fund supported nearly 7,500 education jobs throughout the state. (Source: U.S. Department of Education)

- The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act, signed into law by President Obama in February 2009, funded more than 6,500 education jobs in Pennsylvania. (Source: U.S. Department of Education)

- President Obama’s American Jobs Act, which the Republican Congress continues to block, would provide $1.1 billion for education jobs, $944 million to modernize schools, and $113 million for community colleges in Pennsylvania. Improving health care

- In 2011, Pennsylvania received $2.5 million for school-based health centers that provide screenings, conduct health promotion and disease prevention activities, and enable children with acute or chronic illnesses to attend school. - The Affordable Care Act has brought peace of mind to 7.7 million people in Pennsylvania — they no longer have to worry about lifetime limits. (Source: U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, The Health Care Law & You, healthcare.gov)

- In 2011, more than 32,000 young adults in Pennsylvania could remain on their parents’ health plans until age 26 — and that number will grow in 2012. Before the Affordable Care Act, many college graduates and other young adults had no insurance. (Source: U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, The Health Care Law & You, healthcare.gov)
